MacMurray Ranch was purchased from the Porter family in 1941 by famed actor Fred MacMurray, who starred in the TV show My Three Sons and movie Double Indemnity. Originally from Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, Fred raised his family on the ranch, and they enjoyed the natural wonders of Sonoma County.

Hollywood was work, but the ranch was home for Fred MacMurray who often entertained famous friends such as John Wayne and Clint Eastwood. For 50 years, MacMurray Ranch was nurtured under his hand.
